

Do you have a child with a diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)?

Psychologists at University College Cork are conducting a research study on family functioning, family interaction with professional agencies, and well-being outcomes for autistic children.

This study will involve parents completing an online survey, which can be found at:

or by scanning the QR Code:

To participate in the study, your child must have a diagnosis of ASD and be in mainstream first-level education.
